NETWORK

Immigration & Refugees

LEAD:

ALLISON EZELL

We affirm that immigrants and refugees are valuable members of our Churches and communities across the U.S. We are committed to welcoming immigrants and refugees into our communities and also to advocating for humane immigration and refugee policies that respect the dignity and worth of every human being.

HOW YOU CAN GET INVOLVED

Episcopal Migration Ministries supports the work of parishes involved with immigrants and refugees.

LEARN

"Do not mistreat foreigners who are living in your land. Treat them as you would an Israelite, and love them as you love yourselves. Remember that you were once foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am the Lord your God." Leviticus 19:33-36
